“2010 Movies on the Green at the Depot” Arts Council Smithgall Arts Center

The Arts Council is pleased to announce its fourth season for “Movies on the Green” @ The Smithgall Arts Center in downtown Gainesville. This season will feature two family oriented films that will be shown on a giant inflatable 35 foot screen on the lawn. The movies are FREE for Arts Council Members and an admission charge of $2 for adults and $1 for children/students for non-members. Fun activities (games and other kid friendly activities) are planned prior to the start of each movie. Concessions will be available for purchase on site on movie nights. The first movie night is Thursday, June 17th and the feature will be AVATAR. Show time: Dusk. Gates open at 7:30pm. The second movie scheduled is Alvin and the Chipmunks: The Squeakquel and will be shown on Thursday, July 1st. Tentatively a third movie to be announced will be shown on Thursday, August 5th which will also serve as the rain date for either of the previous movie selections. (Don’t forget your lawn chair or blanket to sit on the grass)
